Planes of Fame: Airshow 2020 Update

STAFF REPORTS

Chino - Due to the Covid-19 Pandemic we regret to inform you that the 2020 Planes of Fame Airshow has been canceled. We are saddened that we have to cancel our favorite program of the year, but want to reiterate that safety is our number one priority. We are looking forward to a fantastic Airshow in 2021. All purchased Airshow tickets can be transferred to our VintageFest Celebration in September 2020, donated to the Museum or refunded back to you. VintageFest will include aircraft fly-bys, many of which were scheduled for our 2020 Airshow. We appreciate your understanding and support during these challenging times. For more information please visit us at: www.PlanesOfFame.org, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter or Youtube. If you have any additional questions, please email info@planesoffame.org or call us at 909-597-3722.

Pastor’s Corner: Faith is Stronger

DENNIS MORALES

“...Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.” Joshua 1:9

As Joshua took the baton from Moses, his first task as new leader was to take the million plus people across the Jordan and into the Promised Land. It appeared to be a daunting task, because it was harvest time and the Jordan was swollen beyond its banks. Nevertheless, God gave the instructions to cross. The priests would go first. God said the moment they touch the Jordan river water with their feet, the flowing water would part, and all the people could cross. Three days the people waited as they watched the torrent of water. Three days for the enemy to try to plant seeds of doubt and fear in everyone’s hearts. It would take great faith to cross the Jordan. Joshua encouraged the people as he was encouraged by God to have faith. The day came for the people to cross, and they did as God had commanded them. We know from the story why God wanted the priests to go first. It’s because they carried the Ark of the covenant. The Ark represented God’s presence to His people. It was always at the center of the camp and to be at the center of God’s people. When the priests went into the Jordan, the waters were parted, and the people crossed.

MARK HOPPER

Several years ago after a friend finished an extensive series of treatments for breast cancer, some friends invited us to use their house while they were away to give her an opportunity to rest and recover from this exhausting journey. Our home was on the water in Newport Beach, California. When we walked up to the house, we were amazed at how beautiful and peaceful it was. It was not on the beach with all the tourists and bicyclists but on Newport Shores where it was quiet and restful.

She began to regain her strength as we went for short walks along the water. As the days went by, she felt more ambitious and determined to walk further. By the end of our stay she was walking all the way from the house to the pier and back. It felt like we were on an extended vacation even though we were only thirty miles from home.

On several occasions over the years other friends have shared their cabins in the mountains east of Los Angeles. My wife was a school teacher and after the end of a busy school year, we often went to the mountains to get out of the foggy June Gloom and enjoy the blue skies and warm sunshine. Our wedding anniversary was also in June so this provided a perfect setting to rest and celebrate together. When our children were younger, a friend loaned us his motorhome for our family vacation.

We are so thankful for the people who have shared so much with us. There is a verse in the Bible that says, “Instruct those who are rich in this present world to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and willing to share” (First Timothy 6:17-18).

You may not think of yourself as rich but I am confident that you do have things that you can share with others. You may have a mountain cabin, a guest house or a motorhome. You may have an extra car or some tools that you can lend. You may have experience, knowledge or skills that you can share with others. Let me encourage you to watch for an opportunity to share some things you have with neighbors, friends or people in need. You will be glad you did and they will too.

Feeding Our Walnut Valley Families During School Closure

"It’s nice to help at a time like this," shared Rachelle Serrano as she provided the curbside service to families.

Parents signaled the number of children in each vehicle and then staff quickly handed off the packaged meals. Serrano also delivered something special to each car - a friendly smile, a wave, and a “have a good day!”

Relax It Will Be Better Soon

NANCY STOOPS

Since we have all been hit with the fear of the Corona Virus many people are very anxious. We all need to relax and practice kindness, patience and humanity. We all need to stay connected and practice tolerance, listening to the words of others and refrain from being judgmental.

Sometimes people do things we enjoy and have faith. Many people are focusing on the person in front of them. I walk by people on the streets and they will bump into me and not even smile. Many car accidents I have read are caused by texting. So this social distancing is not new, it's just now we can't stand next to each other unless they are six feet away. But let's be honest, many people never realized there was someone who was standing next to them.

Maybe now we can get a grasp on our fear and think about what there is out there. There is a world of beauty and people who have families.

We need to maintain a very green world and many people never realized what pure air smells like. Every time I get into my car, I can smell the flowers and trees around everything is so green and beautiful and we live in such a healthy community. Start a new hobby, play with your children, take walks together your pets. Each time to enjoy your family. May God bless us all and may this be over very soon!

with the latest in technology. Their happy chickens are enjoying their newly remodeled home; and their egg-processing machine can handle about 36,000 eggs per hour at its peak. If the average bird lays one egg about every 24 hours, that equals a lot of chickens at the Voortman ranch!

Did you know that you can tell how fresh an egg is by how high the yolk stands up in the frying pan after you crack it? Voortman’s says, “They make the fluffiest scrambled eggs!”

Third-generation egg rancher, Eddie Voortman, says, “We are a local, family-owned business that provides fresh, quality products to the public.

Customers of Voortman’s rave about their all natural, cage free eggs,.touting the freshness, and great pricing. One customer said, “They make the fluffiest scrambled eggs!”

The eggs come in all sizes and colors, depending on your needs. Whatever you choose, you will not be disappointed. Voortman’s is centrally located just minutes from Chino at 13966 Grove Avenue in Ontario (just north of Edinburg). You can reach Voortman’s at (909) 465-1519; and like them on Facebook at https://www.facebook.com/pages/Voortmans-Egg-Ranch/.

Pastor's Corner: 10 Confessions of a Christian-Confession #1: I’m a Liar

CHRIS KIRISH

I confess… I’m a liar.

I confess… I’m a liar. Perhaps you can relate? Sometimes I can’t tell people what’s on my mind and ask me how I’m doing.

“Hi mom! How are you?”

Why did I just lie? Is it be-cause I’m half-expecting them to figure out my lies? Is it because it’s what I’ve learned to ask people? Is it because I don’t really want to think about it? Is it because I don’t even know? Is it because I don’t know them? Is it because I don’t want to go that deep right now? Or is it be-cause hidden somewhere deep down inside of me I’m afraid they won’t like the truth? And that would be worse than if they never asked me in the first place.

Whatever reason we have let’s be honest – we all lie. We lie about how we’re doing. We lie about who we are. We put on a mask and act a part. We act it out. We behave the way we think people want us to be. We bury our feelings.

Now we have a million rea-sons why we do this. It could be our up bringing, our lack of trust, or it could simply be be-cause John Wayne said it’s “What a man’s got to do.”

Why is John Wayne so awe-some?

But whatever the case is, we continue to suppress what we’re going through and we hide our struggles and sins from others. But, that does not erase the ever nagging ques-tion in the back of our minds…

is this the way it was sup-posed to be? Is this how life is supposed to be? Am I hard-wired in my DNA to deal with everything on my own? Is this the way God wanted it to be? Does God want me to carry this weight alone?

I mean sure, not everyone needs to know your deepest darkest secrets and not every-one needs to know you’re not having a good day. But maybe someone should know. Maybe suppressing the pain, hiding our struggles, and lying is not what God wanted for us.

I find it to be fascinating that Jesus had a tremendous amount of compassion and grace for every sinner He came into contact with and yet He was extremely hard on the peo-ple who acted like they had it all together. We don’t have to guess as to why He felt this way – Jesus made it clear for us:

Matthew 25:27 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Phar-isees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of the bones of the dead and every-thing stinking. The way you walk in the same way, on the outside you ap-peared people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hy-poquicy and wickedness.”

I’m no theologian but it seems to me that Jesus really didn’t like it when people faked it. And although we like to pic-ture Jesus as a blond haired happy surfer, carrying a lamb on his shoulders, smiling all the time, and saying “God bless you” – it may not be too far of a stretch to say that Jesus was pretty angry at these religious lead-ers and He may not have been smiling or carrying a lamb at this moment.

And if you think about it God has never liked it when we hide. In fact, this problem of hiding got God all the way back to the Garden of Eden. Genesis 3 tells us that when God came walking in the Garden after Adam and Eve sinned and ate from the tree God commanded them not to eat – they hid from God. This made God angry, and they weren’t the only ones. Jonah once tried hiding from God too. He got on a boat that was headed in the opposite direction from where God was calling him. Jonah though he could run and hide from God. I remember that not going very well for Him.

Something about a big fish? In the same way, many of us are still trying to hide from God today. We hide behind a smile. Behind a title, Behind a façade. A part we play for the people we think will judge us if they really knew us. Can I encour-age you today? Drop the mask. You may be fooling people but you’ll never fool God. And God doesn’t want you to be perfect but he does demand that you’re God’s man – not just a legalistic man but He can’t help someone who pretends like they’re not a sin-ner. God can do anything and He can save anyone but one thing God won’t do – He won’t save someone who won’t admit they need a Savior. Drop the mask and God can do something the truth was then go tell someone else the truth.

KELLI GILE

Diamond Bar - When Dia mond Bar High’s Performing Arts Academy spring recital was cancelled due to COVID-19 school closures, students de-cided that the music must play on.

The advanced musicians, who were quarantined at home, wanted to bring their talents to the audience through the internet.

“Doing business without advertising is like winking at a girl in the dark. You know what you are doing, but nobody else does.” –Stuart Henderson Britt

The virtual concert was a lot to me because it lifts a huge burden off my parents’ shoul-ders and will grant me additional edu-ca-tion opportunities in the future,” he said.

Sean is among an elite group of 30 dynamic and innovative high school seniors at Southern California Edison’s service ter-ritory to receive a total of $1.2 mil-lion from the Edison Scholars Program. The Edison Scholars Program was established in 1997 by Southern California Edison to inspire and recognize outstanding students.

Edison Scholars have bright futures ahead and these schol-ar-ships help turn, innovate and ideas into real-world solutions.

Sean loves the beach and has always been troubled by the amount of trash and pollutants that he sees sprawled across the shores.

After a summer internship at Boeing, he realized that he wanted to build a machine to clean up these pollutants while protecting aquatic ecosystems. “As an aspiring engineer, I hope to create hundreds of cost-effec-tive ROVs (remotely operated underwater vehicles) that are connected through a large network, that can auto-mate and expedite the clean-up of our oceans,” he said.

Sean plans to attend CalTech next fall and study mechanical engineering.

He is captain of the Walnut Valley Hydromechs Robotics team and a member of the Dia mond Bar Symphony Orchestra. Each Edison Scholar will re-ceive a scholarship, paid over four years, to further their ac-ac-demic pursuit of STEM fields – science, technology, engi-neering, or math studies - at a four-year accredited U.S. college or university.

And they weren’t the only ones. Jonah once tried hiding from God too. He got on a boat that was headed in the opposite direction from where God was calling him. Jonah though he could run and hide from God. I remember that not going very well for Him.

Something about a big fish?

In the same way, many of us are still trying to hide from God today. We hide behind a smile. Behind a title. Behind a façade. A part we play for the people we think will judge us if they really knew us. Can I encourage you today? Drop the mask. You may be fooling people but you’ll never fool God. And God doesn’t want you to be perfect but he does demand that you’re God’s man – not just a legalistic man but He can’t help someone who pretends like they’re not a sinner. City Declares Local Emergency in Response to COVID-19

(Diamond Bar, CA, March 19) – On Thursday, March 19 at a special meeting, the City Council adopted a resolution declaring a local emergency in response to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

“As the rapid global spread of COVID-19 has resulted in unprecedented measures in an attempt to reduce the spread of the virus, this declaration of a local emergency allows the City to quickly allocate critical resources and implement measures to protect the health and safety of our community and workforce” stated Mayor Steve Tye.

In response to mandates issued by Governor Newsom and public health agencies to lessen the spread of COVID-19 by supporting social distancing, the City of Diamond Bar has implemented temporary operational changes that will now be extended through to April 30, 2020.

The temporary changes consist of the closing of all City facilities to the public, including City Hall, Diamond Bar Center and Heritage Park Community Center, cancellation of all recreation programs and classes and City special events. City meetings are canceled for the month of March but will resume in April with safety precautions.

We are continuously monitoring the updates from Centers for Disease Control (CDC), Los Angeles Public Health Department as well as from federal, state and local agencies and will make adjustments to our response as needed.

During the closure, City Hall has transitioned to online services. Residents and businesses are encouraged to call the main line at (909) 839-7000. Visit www.diamondbarca.gov to view services available online.

To inquire about facility reservations, class and special event cancellations, contact the Parks and Recreation Department at (909) 839-7070.
