Crime Recap

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale/Norco- In the last month, several crimes took place in the City of Eastvale and Norco. The information listed below is courtesy of the Riverside County Sheriff's Department.

Incident: (DUI) and Driver's License Checkpoint

Location: Eastvale

Details: The Riverside County Sheriff's Office/Jurupa Valley Station will hold a Driving Under the Influence (DUI) and Driver's License Checkpoint on Friday, March 17, 2023 at an undisclosed location within the city limits.

Checkpoint locations are chosen based on a history of DUI crashes and arrests. The primary purpose of checkpoints is not to make arrests, but to promote public safety by deterring drivers from driving impaired.

During the checkpoint, deputies will look for signs that drivers are under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs. The safety of our community is and always will be our mission. Driving under the influence is dangerous and puts a further strain on critical resources.

The Riverside County Sheriff's Office reminds the public that impaired driving is not just from alcohol. Some prescription medications or over-the-counter drugs may interfere with driving.

Always follow directions for use and read warning labels about "driving" or "operating heavy machinery," which includes driving a vehicle. While medicinal and recreational marijuana are legal, driving under the influence of marijuana is illegal.

If you plan on drinking or taking medications that may impact your ability to drive

The Eye of the Beholder

MICHAEL ARMIJO

It was a warm yet windy day filled with strong sorrow. The air reflected a deep sense of respect as people gathered to say goodbye to a friend whose spirit had left the earth. As everyone gathered, the vibrant wooden casket lay atop the ground as the family gathered closely around. The youngest boy, a young man, gazed at the casket while tears of sorrow flowed from his swollen eyes. He walked up and lay his cheek on top of the hard, shiny, wooden box, as his white-gloved hands gently caressed the top of the last home his fathers' body would ever have. He layed gentle kisses on the top of the casket, as his unconditional love reflected in front of all those who watched. A gentle whisper is heard a row back; "did you see that? how sad."

When I heard those words; "how sad," I felt something deep inside that disagreed. Something that didn't see the message of sadness when the boy showed his respect to his loved one. Instead, I saw an act of love. A love so strong, it displayed the true meaning of unconditional love. Something deep inside that didn't care if the world looked on or what people felt. A feeling of purity, of joy, of strength.

I believe the old saying; "beauty is in the eye of the beholder." I believe we all see life in a certain light, and sometimes, in a certain darkness.

I also believe that when we express the darkness that surrounds our lives, it spreads like a contagious and cancerous disease. It attaches by simple contact, clings like a dependent child, and deteriorates in a short amount of time.

I've learned that opinions are only perceptions of a person's immediate thinking, and reflections of someone's inner self. What we see is usually what we feel, what we feel deep inside. Without realizing it, we express past experiences, deep histories, our insecurities of our future; we reflect the perception of our own lives.

I also believe that when we see life in its darkest hour, we do have the opportunity to see life through the brightest light. For some it's a short path traveled to a place inside that holds our mind hostage from our heart. For others, it's a level of confidence that sits deep within that has been damaged by a careless act from an irresponsible adult.

I believe that the true meaning of life can only be understood through the light of beauty and the inner joy that sets deep in our hearts. I believe the vision of what will come can only be seen through the eyes of a believer. I feel the truest form of emotion can only be felt when a person can feel the presence of a higher power, a stronger entity, something or someone greater than ourselves.

I understand that life is not always what it intends itself to be, it changes moods like a spoiled child. But I also understand that life can be what we want it to be; all we have to do is apply our hearts in front of our minds. Following what we truly feel and not what we think we see, is the only way to put aside our petty angry thoughts and our insignificant bitterness.

Because just as the boy who helped bury his only father, the tears that flow from our swollen eyes are tears of love that can only be seen when beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

operators, and they take security very seriously. They also have a manager that lives on-site 24/7. In addition, all their units are accessible from the ground floor and there is plenty of parking on the property, which is different than nearby competitors.

Another business that is almost ready to open is the Heroes Restaurant & Brewhouse. Their sign just went up on their building and "diligent progress is being made inside," stated the City. They are expected to open in early April so stay tuned for when you can visit them at the Hamner Place shopping center.

Construction is also underway in the surrounding areas of Eastvale. The Hamner Avenue bridge is now officially demolished and construction will now begin on the eastern bridge span of the new Mayor Berwin Hanna Bridge Avenue. The entire project is expected to be completed in winter of 2023/2024 and you will be able to use all 3 lanes when completed. Follow the Hamner Avenue Bridge and Widening project on Facebook for more updates.

Another nearby construction is in the neighboring city of Corona. As of February 22, 2023, there will be a six-month closure along Rincon Street. This closure will allow Army Corps of Engineers to complete the dike construction and new Rincon Street roadway realignment over the new dike. "Access to the Corona Municipal Airport and Butterfield Park will remain throughout the duration of the Rincon Street closure and throughout the project construction," according to the City. Nearby residents are asked to continue to detour traffic along River Road to Lincoln throughout the Rincon Street Closure. For more information about this closure, you can contact the

as a Christ-centered family by loving God and others, proclaiming the Good News, cultivating faithful living through teaching God's Word, and reaching the lost in our local and global communities."

Reverend Chu said he received the calling from God to pastor this church. He fulfills this calling by pastoring the people of the church through his teachings and preaching. But he also provides spiritual care to them, including Pastoral counseling, prayer, in person visits, and community work.

Riverside Christian Alliance Church is "commissioned by God to serve the community," said Reverend Chu. "We love to meet people and provide resources to help the others," he added.

The church hosts a 10:30 a.m. family service every Sunday, where both adults and children can sit together. Reverend Chu says the majority of the church are ethnic Chinese, so they offer a bilingual service in both English and Mandarin. However, he said there are people of different ethnicities that attend their service as well. Many of the congregants live in Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, and Riverside.

Riverside Christian Alliance

Church also organizes various events like a Lunar New Year celebration, mid-Autumn festival celebration, a Thanksgiving gathering, and a Christmas program. All events are free and offer good food too! In addition, Riverside Christian Alliance has different fellowship groups for all ages that meet throughout the week.

of the church will enjoy a free snack or lunch after Sunday worship.

Downtown Eastvale breaks ground

one who joined us today for our groundbreaking ceremony!"

Downtown Eastvale is expected to be located between Hamner Avenue, Limonite Avenue, Scholar Way, and 58th Street. It will include commercial office space, civic and public services, a range of residential offerings, as well as recreational and entertainment opportunities. The design is outlined in four pillars: Pillar 1 Magical Destination, Pillar 2 Energy & Vitality, Pillar 3 Pedestrian Primary, and Pillar 4 Economic Engine.

The City issued a news release in Sept. 2022 stating that the Leal Ranch Property closed escrow and is now owned by The New Home Company. The Leal Ranch Property was renamed to Phase 1 of Downtown Eastvale.

Phase I of Downtown Eastvale will include a "Library, City Hall, Police Station, 3rd Fire Station, amphitheater, up to 495,000 of the 595,000 square feet of retail/commercial space, up to 802 homes, and parks," according to the City.

In 2022, the City Council "approved a Development Agreement between the City of Eastvale and The New Home Company for a 20-year term," stated a City news release. "With the development agreement, 495,000 square feet of the retail/commercial space will be City controlled and operated." Businesses interested in leasing opportunities are asked to email economicdevelopment@eastvaleca.gov.

"The Downtown Eastvale Community desires to build a place that THRIVES in the Inland Empire while maintaining our historic charm," stated the Downtown Eastvale website. "We are committed to the growth and prosperity of the City of Eastvale. By bringing together a magical destination for our residents and guests, Downtown Eastvale will also serve an economic catalyst for the community by welcoming new businesses and employment opportunities for our community."

It's Time for Spring Yard Cleanup

Reverend Wayne Chu

Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no grain. And other seeds fell into good soil and produced grain, growing up and increasing and yielding thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold. Mark 4:7-8

I have many friends who love gardening and planting fruit trees. When we plant, we want to see them blossom and bear fruits. Jesus presents this picture to show us the life He gives us, it is joyful and meaningful, just like receiving fruits from our garden. However, that requires a lot of work. Now, Spring is here. It is time to clean up the weeds. Similarly, there are the worries of the earthly matters, such as our health, our job, our financial situation, and our relationships. These can take up all our minds and energy much like how a weed will take up the nutrients necessary for plants to flourish. Moreover, Jesus talks about worldly desires, indeed, we are very materialistic. We get tempted to spend money to "enjoy more" easily. Unfortunately, our desires make us keep chasing what seems to be "better" and in doing so we pursue a path where there is no end. As a result of this mindset, we cannot enjoy what we already have and are unable to find contentment in our everyday lives.

Jesus reminds us to focus on "Life in Him". Living a life in Jesus is a worthy endeavor that allows us to pursue a happier and healthier life. If we turn our eyes to Him, our worries and desires will go away. We will be able to spend our time with others and enjoy their company. We will be able to see the needs of the others who are near us. We can offer love, care, and help to those we love. A meaningful, happy, and healthy life is the fruit Jesus wants us to bear.

The Easter Message

Pastor Dennis Morales

"Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still..."

Luke 7:14

There is no arguing that one of the most painful occurrences in life is losing a loved one. Jesus came upon a widow who had just lost her only son. According to old Jewish custom, the women would precede a funeral procession because women were believed to have brought death into the world in the line of Eve. This widow would be the first person He would see and He looked at her with compassion (Luke 7:13). It was custom for family members and friends to come and touch the coffin, which would halt the procession, and say a few words of comfort to the survived. Then the procession would continue. According to custom, Jesus stood at the procession and touched the coffin. Jesus tells the woman "do not weep." He then tells the young man in the coffin to "get up." "So that he who was dead sat up and began to speak" (Luke 7:15). What Jesus did was unprecedented. Under normal circumstances the funeral procession would have continued. But when Jesus stopped the funeral procession and it never continued! Jesus essentially stopped death in its tracks. This is what Jesus has done for all mankind through the Cross. He has halted the effect of sin and eternal death upon all those who believe in Him (Jn 3:16). Jesus' death on the Cross defeated sin and He further punctuates this by His Rising from the dead. In this is the Easter message. (1 Corinthians 15:21-22, 55-57)

Is the Gospel Alive?

Pastor Matt Miles

Easter Sunday is right around the corner! This brings a question: did Jesus really rise from the grave? Interestingly, the resurrection of Jesus Christ has been a debated topic from the very beginning, and many have introduced theories to try to explain away this phenomenon. One of the theories that has been around since the resurrection is "the disciples stole the body." In Matthew 28:11-13, the Jewish leaders listened to the guards' accounts of what transpired and decided on a remedy that required bribery and an explanation. Essentially, the disciples stole the body while the guards were sleeping.

The first issue is how could the guards have known what the disciples did if they were sleeping? The second issue is that Matthew 28:2 and Mark 16:4 mention that a large stone was covering the entrance to the tomb. This large stone would have taken many hands to move and would have made enough noise to wake sleeping guards. Another issue would be why were the grave clothes left behind by the disciples? Not just left behind but the napkin that had been on Jesus' head was folded and neatly left according to John 20:7.

The final issue is this: why would the disciples give their lives for a lie? These disciples were dejected and hiding in a room fearing they were next but after Jesus' resurrection and ascension these men boldly stood before the Sanhedrin in Acts 4, propagated the gospel throughout the world, and most died a martyr's death. Even staunch critics such as James (the half-brother of Jesus) and Saul (the Christian persecutor) dedicated their lives to Christ after His resurrection and died for Him. Why would these Christians and critics die for His cause?

The resurrection of Christ was a literal, life changing event in history! 1 Peter 1:3 says, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead." Through Jesus Christ's resurrection the gospel is alive!

Deciding to Start Therapy

Nancy Stoops

Deciding to start therapy can be a very hard decision. It's hard to admit to ourselves that we can't do it on our own and that we need some help. The truth is even though we take care of ourselves sometimes we need the help of a good doctor or an antibiotic and sometimes surgery. I have always referred to myself as an emotional surgeon. What I mean by this, is that I open you up and help you begin to deal with all of those dysfunctional feelings that are making you feel so bad and so stuck. Starting therapy takes an incredible amount of courage and is a sign of strength not weakness. Please never feel embarrassed that you feel have run out of options and that now you need some help to get through some things.

Over the years I have worked with people 2-91 years of age dealing parenting, drugs, anxiety, depression, autistic spectrum disorders, bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, appropriate sexual boundaries and so many other issues. Between my groups and my private practice I have helped thousands of people learn how to live a happy and balanced life. I want my clients to be healthy mentally as well as physically and spiritually healthy. I think all three of these go hand in hand to maintain permanent well-being.

A good place to start is by visiting one of my groups and seeing if you like my style before you start spending your hard earned money. Keep in mind my co-therapist is a registered therapy dog named Jaida. If you are a dog lover you will have a great team on your side while you are doing some very necessary healing or just getting some tips on how to live more fully!!!!
