When Are We No Longer Parents?

MICHAEL ARMIJO

It was only a 45-minute drive, but I arrived at the site. It took me another 10 minutes to find his "section," but we were soon in the vicinity of where his life was laid to rest. As I paced each headstone, I had an eerie vision of him lying beneath the surface, watching me pace the yard, while his spirit yearned for me, almost as though he was screaming, in a silent fortitude: "I'm over here."

I walked up to his plaque, and I stared at the impression in the stone. I reluctantly read the words, "Cipriano Armijo, beloved man of God." I traced each word with my hand, etching each letter with my fingers. I knelt down on the delicate, damp, green grass; I relaxed myself over the 8 by 4 foot section of landscape that was the last home to his physical existence.

When I knelt, I looked down and confessed all the things that have happened since he left this earth. I explained to the ground, and the bronze piece of metal that bore his name, my life without daddy, hoping his spirit heard my deepest fears and my strongest accomplishments. I told him that I had hoped he was proud of me, as my life had followed strange paths that have given me journeys of learning, and routines of pain. Since his departure, life had become interesting, painful, and victorious.

gazed upon the freshly cut, softened soil, and then I held myself accountable of my actions and assessments of life, just as when he was alive. I relayed the message; "I know you're there, I know you're watching." And when I sat at his gravesite, I remembered all those who claim their parents are no longer with us. While on my knees, I realized that I still had a father; I still had someone to answer to.

I believe that parents are forever. I believe that we never end our influence on our children; we never stop being parents. That's why it's so important that we do a good job when we're here on earth; we have no guarantee of how long we're going to stay. We must do the best we can with what little time we have. Our children need us now, and they'll need us when we're gone.

And when we're gone, when our heart stops and our spirit rises to the world beyond our moral character, we can only hope that we've loved enough, lived enough, and laughed enough for our children to remember our lives as a benefit to their own. And when they someday kneel on the delicate, damp, green grass that lies the last home to our physical existence, we can only hope the tears that fill their eyes and hearts are tears of love that years for our spirit to forever watch over their joyous lives; to remind them, that we'll never, ever, stop being their parents.

This article was written by Michael before he passed in October 2020. His articles are placed in his memory.

ed commission, but with full service. Rivera's offer of 4% Total Commission for Sellers includes 2.5% to the Buyer's Agent and 1.5% to Rivera's office. Most Realtors negotiate a 6% commission because they have to split the fees with their brokerage. But, as Rivera is the Broker, he passes on the savings to the Seller. This will save Sellers thousands of dollars in commission fees. His team offers full service for that discounted rate including high quality flyers, professional photos, open houses (as allowable by Seller), and extended advertising coverage on the Internet and social media.

Now, more about what you're getting from Gil Rivera at SellYourCasa.com: It's important to know all aspects of your business. For Gil Rivera from SellYourCasa.com, he absolutely knows every aspect of buying and selling a home. He is a reliable, experienced, and an affordable Realtor, Broker, and Certified Appraiser.

Rivera sells houses, condos, and two to four unit investment properties in Riverside, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, and Orange counties. He just recently sold another home in Eastvale last month. He also does real estate appraisals for banks, estates, trusts, divorces, attorneys, refinances, home purchases, and probate/inheritance for tax purposes. In addition, Rivera has assistants that work with him who are fluent in Spanish and Chinese, helping to reach people of different dialects all over Southern California.

Rivera's philosophy is to "treat my clients the way I want to be treated." In fact, Rivera said that he became a Realtor because he did not like the way his Realtor treated him when he was buying his home. Rivera shows respect for his clients at all times. He listens to what they say, so that he can better serve them.

Rivera also does not push his Buyers into a sale. Rivera said, "I always tell Buyers: 'You will know right away when we walk into the house that's meant for you'. Whether it takes a week or months, my Buyers will always be satisfied with their purchase and never pressured into it."

Rivera's current promotion is, "We will SELL your house in four weeks at highest value! We only request a listing period of four weeks, while most other Realtors ask for a six month listing." Rivera says that "Buyers need to know that they do not need to pay their Realtor any fees for representing them on a purchase. The Buyer's agent is paid by the Seller, not the Buyer.

Check out Rivera's website at <http://www.SellYourCasa.com> to see how many different cities Rivera has sold in and for additional information about his company. You can also call the toll free number at (877) 888-SOLD (7653), or cell phone number (909) 967-4525. warrant, which was served at a commercial storage business located in the 13000 block of Ramona Avenue, Chino, where multiple personal items stolen during the original thefts were recovered. The two remaining suspects have been identified and apprehension efforts are ongoing.

Incident: "Jugging" Burglary Results in Arrests

Date: October 26, 2023

Location: Norco

Details: On October 26, 2023, at 10:02 a.m., Norco Sheriff's Station deputies responded to a vehicle burglary near the 100 block of Hidden Valley Parkway in Norco. Upon their arrival, they learned that the victim had withdrawn a large amount of money and placed it inside the glove box of their vehicle before returning to the location.

While the victim was inside, a citizen observed a subject walk up to the victim's vehicle, break a window, and climb inside. A getaway vehicle approached the victim's vehicle and drove away once the vehicle burglar stole the victim's money. The mode of operation in these thefts is commonly referred to as "jugging."

Investigative leads on the whereabouts of the suspect's vehicle led deputies to the Cabazon area, where Cabazon Sheriff's Station deputies located and detained the occupants. Norco deputies responded and recovered most of the victim's stolen money and evidence of the crime. The suspects, 34-year-old Isaiah Fitzgerald

Moses and 33-year-old Denzel Tyrell Lawson, residents of Houston, Texas, were arrested and booked at the Robert Presley Detention Center for burglary and conspiracy, with bail set at $10,000.

Anyone with information on this investigation can contact Deputy Bryce Cooper of the Norco Sheriff's Station at (951) 280-5212.

Incident: Armed Robbery

Date: October 23, 2023

Location: Jurupa Valley

Details: On Monday, October 23, 2023, at 07:15 a.m., deputies from the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station responded to a business in the 10000 block of Bellegrave Avenue, in the city of Jurupa Valley, regarding an armed robbery. The victim advised three unknown males brandished a handgun and took cash and tobacco products. The suspects fled the scene in a black Jeep. Jurupa Valley Station investigators responded to the scene and assumed the investigation. One of the suspects was identified and located at a residence in the 2700 Block of Eagle Creek Place in the city of Ontario. A short time later, deputies conducted a high-risk enforcement stop on the suspect vehicle as it left the residence, and the occupants were detained without incident. Investigators served a search warrant at the Eagle Creek Place residence and located two additional suspects. As a result of the search warrant, investigators recovered stolen cash, tobacco products, and four firearms.

Investigators arrested Tommy Rojas, an 18-year-old resident of Rancho Cucamonga, Umar Syed, a 19-year-old resident of Pomona, and a 17-year-old male juvenile for robbery, conspiracy, and weapons charges. Rojas and Syed were booked into Robert Presley Detention Center, and the juvenile was booked into Riverside Juvenile Hall. This investigation is ongoing.

Anyone with additional information is urged to contact Investigator Passalacqua at Riverside County Sheriff's dispatch at (951) 776-1099 or the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station at (951) 955-2600. They will have a Community Open House on Wednesday, December 6 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at City Hall. The Open House will give residents an opportunity to meet with staff, ask questions, and provide comments. To view the documents or to learn more about the General Plan, please visit www.eastvaleca.gov/our-city/what-s-new/eastvale-2040.

Lastly, the City introduced Project 92880: Embrace Eastvale. The new ZIP code outreach initiative, Project 92880: Embrace Eastvale will be announced in the upcoming weeks. The City posted a video about the project and asked residents to share it to help other residents, cities, agencies, and the USPS understand Eastvale's need for an independent ZIP code. You can also volunteer to assist the City in this outreach initiative by visiting their website to sign up.

SBA LOAN NEW HOMES WORKING CAPITAL

Planning

Reverend Wayne Chu

The year 2024 is right around the corner. Once we step into the month of November, it is time for planning. I am sure many are already deep into their planning process. It is exciting to set sight on new horizons and set forth new goals to pursue. And of course, you would not mind putting your much-anticipated concert and your dream vacation on the plan too.

With all these excitements and anticipations, let us admit that life is unpredictable. Do we forget about the sudden and unforeseeable arrival of the COVID-19 pandemic, which disrupted our lives like never before? It set back our plan by several years. Now, if we carefully read the news, do you see that war is looming on the horizon, inflation is turning back, recession is just waiting to step in? Any of these could blow away our plan easily. So, is it still possible to make plan for 2024?

There is a profound truth we can learn from Proverbs 16:1: "To humans belong the plans of the heart, but from the LORD comes the proper answer of the tongue."

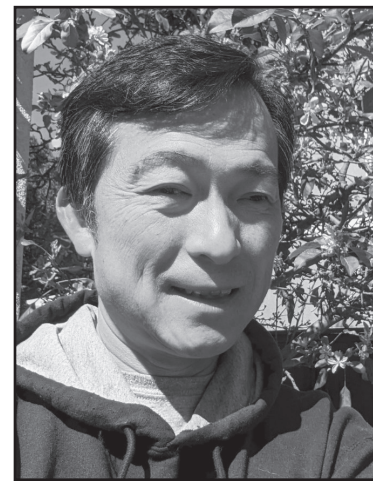

Also in the New Testament, James 4:13-15 provides further insight about planning and tomorrow:

"Now listen, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.' Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. Instead, you ought to say, 'If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that.'"

These valuable bible verses offer both warning and comfort. It is indeed our responsibility to make a good plan. However, no matter how comprehensive our plan and preparations are, we cannot destinate it to happen. Instead, it is the LORD who can make it come true. Therefore, invite the LORD to our planning meeting, submit our plans to him, be flexible to adapt when things happen in another way. That will bring us a sense of inner peace. For we trust in His divine plan which prospers us and not to harm us. And this trust positions us appropriately in the real world.

Shine

Pastor Dennis Morales

"Let your light so shine..." -Matthew 5:16

The Moon at night can offer beautiful displays of light, but its source of light comes directly from the Sun. Realistically, if there was no Sun, it would be nothing but a dirty rock. In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus shares the very well known "Be"-attitudes." What Jesus teaches, certainly isn't about

"world peace," it's directed toward our character. The religious leaders in Jesus' day were so concerned with the minute details of conduct, that they missed the major issue of character. Character goes much deeper than the surface. The way we live our lives flows from our character. A great preacher once said "Character is who you are when no one is looking." How is your behavior when no one is around? If your character is weak, then you will fall to destructive behavior. If your character is strong, then you will be able to withstand difficult pressures and temptation. What is good character? The Bible identifies godly character as one that reflects love, joy, peace, kindness, patience, gentleness, goodness, and self-control (Galatians 5:22,23). Do we perfectly reflect this at all times? Not realistically, but influences you have in your life will be reflected by you. The closer you draw to Jesus, the more His life will be reflected in you. Our children need good influence in their lives. We are called to influence character in our children's lives as parents and teachers. Draw close to the source and let your light shine!

Calvary Chapel Eastvale meets Sundays, 8am & 10am, at the Eastvale Community Center. www.calvaryeastvale.org.

Happy Thanksgiving

Mark Hopper

Thanksgiving is one of my favorite holidays on the calendar. I have written a number of stories in my first two books about some memorable moments on Thanksgiving. When I was a young pastor in Tucson, I broke two fingers playing Flag Football on Thanksgiving Day. I spent most of the day in the hospital emergency room waiting for the orthopedic doctor to finish his Thanksgiving dinner. My wife was not very happy I missed dinner with our family and guests.

I remember the year when we served a Rubber Ball instead of a Butter Ball turkey on Thanksgiving Day. I had purchased a store brand turkey at a significant discount because I had spent over $25 on other items for Thanksgiving dinner. The discounted store brand turkey turned out to be a disaster. It tasted like a rubber ball. No one ate it. I learned an important lesson. Always buy a Butterball turkey for Thanksgiving. Don't buy the store brand and get a rubber ball.

Another Thanksgiving I remember was when we didn't have any Pumpkin Pies. My wife baked two pies using some cans of evaporated milk with expired dates. We didn't want to get our guests to get sick with food poisoning so we tossed those out, got some fresh cans of evaporated milk and baked two new pumpkin pies. However when we tasted the new pies they were terrible. My wife forgot to put sugar in the pie filling. So I rushed over to Marie Calendar's restaurant and bought two of the last few pies in the store just before closing so we could have pumpkin pie on Thanksgiving Day.

I also remember a sad Thanksgiving dinner with my grandparents when I was a senior in high school. I remember my grandfather leaving the table in the middle of dinner and lying down on the sofa with discomfort. I knew he had cancer but I didn't realize he would die less than a month later. I always remember the tears in my mother's eyes as my grandfather left the table. It was our last Thanksgiving with him. There is a passage in the Bible which reminds us to give thanks to God in every circumstance (First Thessalonians 5:16-18). I'm sure you have some stories you could tell about Thanksgiving Day dinners and disasters. Let me encourage you to share those memories with your children and grandchildren. Ask other family members to share what they are thankful for too. Remember to give thanks to God as you enjoy Thanksgiving with your loved ones. They will be glad you did.

Happy Thanksgiving

Nancy Stoops

I would like to start by wishing all of you a very happy and blessed Thanksgiving. I also want to remind you that we have so very much to be grateful for during this very difficult time in our world. Make every day a Thanksgiving not just one day a year. Think about all that you have in your life. Most of us have our health, a roof over our heads, food in our bellies, a car, hot and cold running water, family, pets, and so much more. We can spend our days feeling sorry for ourselves for what we don't get to do or have right now or we can focus on all that we have.

It really comes down to perspective and attitude or what I refer to a mindset. I believe it is really important for our well-being to stay positive and grateful. If we give in to the darkness and all that is wrong then we will become depressed and anxious. If we can practice staying in the good and the light then our lives will be better and we will enjoy each and every day no matter what is occurring in our world. The truth is all we really have control over is how we respond to everything. I say use this power to put good into our world and into ourselves.

Please remember different doesn't have to be bad it can be amazing. I know this year many of us will have a different type of celebration for Thanksgiving but remember you can still make it magical. This can be the year of some new fantastic traditions and a great opportunity to make magnificent memories!!!! Happy Thanksgiving to you all amazing beings and may your holiday be filled with the magic of positive thinking and all that is possibly and fabulous in our world!!!!!!

as a Christ-centered family by loving God and others, proclaiming the Good News, cultivating faithful living through teaching God's Word, and reaching the lost in our local and global communities."

Reverend Chu said he received the calling from God to pastor this church. He fulfills this calling by pastoring the people of the church through his teachings and preaching. But he also provides spiritual care to them, including Pastoral counseling, prayer, in person visits, and community work.

Riverside Christian Alliance Church is "commissioned by God to serve the community," said Reverend Chu. "We love to meet people and provide resources to help the others," he added.

The church hosts a 10:30 a.m. family service every Sunday, where both adults and children can sit together. Reverend Chu says the majority of the church are ethnic Chinese, so they offer a bilingual service in both English and Mandarin. However, he said there are people of different ethnicities that attend their service as well. Many of the congregants live in Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, and Riverside.

Riverside Christian Alliance Church also organizes various events like a Lunar New Year celebration, mid-Autumn festival celebration, a Thanksgiving gathering, and a Christmas program. All events are free and offer good food too! In addition, Riverside Christian Alliance has different fellowship groups for all ages that meet throughout the week.

Their next event will be their Christmas Celebration on December 16, where they will have scripture reading, singing, and music presentations to honor the birth of Jesus Christ. Join them at 5 pm for the potluck dinner and 6:30 pm for the Christmas Celebration.

Or why wait? Come visit Riverside Christian Alliance Church

this Sunday at 10:30 a.m.! New visitors of the church will enjoy a free snack or lunch after Sunday worship.

"We love to get to know newcomers, neighbors, and friends. We welcome everyone coming to visit us and joining our events."

Teacher Arrested

This is an ongoing investigation, and no further details were provided by the Sheriff's Department. Anyone with information regarding this case is encouraged to call Investigator J. Andrade at (951) 955-1701.

The Corona-Norco Unified School District (CNUSD) addressed the issue stating that once they were informed of the allegations, the teacher never returned to the classroom, was immediately placed on administrative leave, and the Riverside County Sheriff's Department was contacted. The Press Enterprise reported that CNUSD issued the following statement:

"This news is disheartening and upsetting to us all. Corona-Norco Unified School District has zero tolerance for any behavior that endangers our students. To reinforce our commitment, the school district is expanding our comprehensive training programs focused on preventing and addressing matters of this nature. These initiatives aim to educate staff, students, and parents about the various aspects of respectful behavior and reporting procedures."

The expansion of their training programs may benefit greatly because this is not the first time an ERHS teacher has been arrested for inappropriate behavior with students. Just last year, ERHS teacher, Amanda Quinonez, was accused of committing lewd acts with a male student and distributing explicit photos of a sexual nature to him. Another teacher was arrested prior to that as well.
